

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions of the
2 committee chairman?

3 Delegate Grumbacher.

4 DELEGATE GRUMBACHER: Are there any other states
5 which have this type problem with corporations, or have they
6 disappeared by this point in time?

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Gallagher.

8 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: We haven't researched that
9 point, Delegate Grumbacher.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions?

11 Delegate Gallagher, the Chair has one or two
12 questions. It directs your attention to the sentence
13 beginning in line 35, and extending down to 41, and I will 14 ask you if that does not have a much broader import than the

15 the
16 B&O railroad or the other corporations you mentioned with 17 respect to tax exemptions?

18 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Yes, sir, it does. In 19 actuality, the first two sentences were in the 1851
20 Constitution, and the sentence beginning "The General
21 Assembly shall not alter --" on line 41 came in with
